Bouganvillea mix color

Californian means not a well-defined species, but the various hybrids present in cultivation only in pyramid shapes and mix color espaliers.ï In culture are three of the 18 species of the genus, of which there are some varieties. The cultivated species include Bougainvillea glabra, Bougainvillea spectabilis, Bougainvillea peruviana and their hybrids.
It loves a position in full light and substrates with perfect drainage. Average water requirement. (USDA zone 10-11)

Category: Bougainvillea
Families: Nyctaginaceae
Genus: Bougainvillea
Species: californiana
Geographical Area of Origin: Central America / South America
Climatic Zones: Tropical USDA 11
Habit: Shrub-climber
Leaves: Semi-evergreen
Colore Foglie: Verde ï Variegato
Flowering Period: Marzo / Aprile / Maggio / Giugno / Luglio / Agosto / Settembre / Ottobre / Novembre / Dicembre
Flower: Tubular
Colore Fiori: Giallo ï Rosso ï Arancione ï Bianco ï Rosa ï Viola
Favorite soil: Neutral / Middle-Dough / Medium soil
Water needs: Aboundant water / Medium
Light Exposure: Full light / Full sun
Form: Mix color espalier / Espalier / Wired on stick / Plant on cane / Pyramid / Sapling interwoven / Tree / Basket / Spiral / Grown as shrub / bush